Licensed Psychologist Online Initial - Introduction

Thank you for your interest in applying for Psychology licensure in Texas.

BEFORE proceeding with the online application, please review the following resources from the Council's website:

- Psychology webpage - Types of Licenses, Jurisprudence Examination, Frequently Asked Questions;
- Statute and Rules - Licensure and examination requirements for Licensed Psychologist;
- Psychology Forms and Publications - Download & review the Licensed Psychologist Checklist & License Process.

Please note that fees are neither refundable nor transferrable. Be sure to only submit one online application. How to User Guides are available to assist with the online licensing system and are located under the Forms and Publications section on the main page of the Council's website.

IMPORTANT: select applications materials, i.e., transcripts, certifications, verifications of licensure, health services credentials and EPPP scores, included but not limited to, are subject to primary source verification (PSV). These items must be received directly from the issuing entities either by mail or designated email (Contact Us page) and may not be accepted from the applicant if attached to the online application.

If you need to contact the psychology licensing staff, please use drop down Psychology (applications and Licensing questions) under Contact Us found on the main Texas Behavioral Health Executive Council website.
